- Zedekiah - “Alas lord!”
 - Jer. 34:2-5 - “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. 3 'And you shall not escape from his hand, but shall surely be taken and delivered into his hand; your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, he shall speak with you face to face, and you shall go to Babylon. 4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you: 'You shall not die by the sword. 5 'You shall die in peace; as in the ceremonies of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they shall burn incense for you and lament for you, saying, "Alas, lord!" For I have pronounced the word, says the LORD.”

Bible Epitaphs That Should Be Remembered

- Zedekiah - “Alas lord!”
 - We can repent of a sinful life and go to our graves in peace, but the temporal consequences of sin often remain

Bible Epitaphs That Should Be Remembered

- Abner - “Should Abner die as a fool dies?”
 - 2Sam. 3:33-34 - “And the king sang a lament over Abner and said: Should Abner die as a fool dies? 34 Your hands were not bound Nor your feet put into fetters; As a man falls before wicked men, so you fell. Then all the people wept over him again.”
 - Another translation: “Shall Abner die a death like a villain's? Your hands not bound, nor were your feet bound in the fetters; like one who falls before the sons of guilt, so have you fallen!”

Bible Epitaphs That Should Be Remembered

- Abner - “Should Abner die as a fool dies?”
 - The passing of some people serves as a final rebuke to the living, for those who mistreated, lied, cheated, or ignored them
 - Do good to all persons in life; otherwise whatever kind words you may say at their passing will be meaningless, hypocritical, and self-serving

Bible Epitaphs That Should Be Remembered

- Abijah the son of Jeroboam - “in him there is found something good toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam”
 - 1Kings 14:1, 12-13 - “At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick... 12 Arise therefore, go to your own house. When your feet enter the city, the child shall die. 13 And all Israel shall mourn for him and bury him, for he is the only one of Jeroboam who shall come to the grave, because in him there is found something good toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.”

Bible Epitaphs That Should Be Remembered

- Abijah the son of Jeroboam
 - When men do evil, they pull many others along with them into pain, including and especially those who are nearest to them
 - Innocent children are safer and blessed in the bosom of the Lord than with sinful, worldly, or materialistic parents
 - Parents are given children as pure, innocent, blank slates. God help you if you raise them to be sinners!

Bible Epitaphs That Should Be Remembered

- Jehoiakim - “He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey”
 - Jer. 22:18-19 - “Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: They shall not lament for him, Saying, 'Alas, my brother!' or 'Alas, my sister!' They shall not lament for him, Saying, 'Alas, master!' or 'Alas, his glory!' 19 He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, Dragged and cast out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.”

 - 2Kings 23:16-18 - "As Josiah turned, he saw the tombs that were there on the mountain. And he sent and took the bones out of the tombs and burned them on the altar, and defiled it according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words. 17 Then he said, What gravestone is this that I see? So the men of the city told him, It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel. 18 And he said, Let him alone; let no one move his bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria."

Bible Epitaphs That Should Be Remembered

- The un-named Judean prophet sent to speak against Jereboam's idolatrous altars at Bethel -
“It is the tomb of the man of God”
 - At a time when the tombs of evil men were being leveled, the tomb of a righteous man was honored
 - Prov. 10:7 - “The memory of the righteous is blessed, But the name of the wicked will rot.”
 - The wicked only prosper for a short while; the righteous will be blessed forever, even if their tombs are forgotten

Bible Epitaphs That Should Be Remembered

- Saul and Jonathan - “How the mighty have fallen!”
 - 2Sam. 1:12-27
 - It is God’s place to judge the dead
 - It is dangerous to rejoice over the passing of the wicked
 - Remember the good and let God address the evil

Bible Epitaphs That Should Be Remembered

- Saul and Jonathan - “How the mighty have fallen!”
 - Prov. 24:17-20 - “Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, And do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles; 18 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease Him, And He turn away His wrath from him. 19 Do not fret because of evildoers, Nor be envious of the wicked; 20 For there will be no prospect for the evil man; The lamp of the wicked will be put out.”
