

The Greatest Statement Ever Made

John 3:16 - "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

The Greatest Statement Ever Made

- There are several profound verses in the Bible regarding God's love for man. 1.
 - 1John 4:8 - "He who does not love does not know God, for God is love."
 - Rom. 5:8 - "But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us."
 - John 3:16 is the pinnacle

Greatest Because Of The One Who Loves

- “GOD so loved.” Eternal God, immutable, all knowing, omnipresent, Holy God who created all
 - Deut. 33:27 - “The eternal God is your refuge, And underneath are the everlasting arms...”
 - Heb. 6:17-18 - “Thus God, determining to show more abundantly to the heirs of promise the immutability of His counsel, confirmed it by an oath, 18 that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we might have strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before us.”

- He sees all of our steps and loves us in spite of knowing that much about us
 - Job 34:21 - “For His eyes are on the ways of man, And He sees all his steps.”
 - Psalm 139:1-12

Greatest Because Of Whom He Loves

- "For God so loved THE WORLD"
 - The world (kosmos) is not the world John said to "love not," but rather, it is humankind
 - 1John 2:15 - "Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him."
 - John 17:21 - "...That they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me."

Greatest Because Of Whom He Loves

- The greatness of God's love for man is seen in the unworthiness of man to receive God's love
 - Rom. 5:6-8 - “For when we were still without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die. 8 But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.”

Greatest Because Of How Much He Loves

- "For God SO LOVED..."
 - 1John 3:1 - "Behold what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God!"
 - This does not mean that God approved the conduct of men, but that he had benevolent feelings toward them, or was earnestly desirous of their happiness. God hates wickedness, but he still desires the happiness of those who are sinful. He hates the sin, but loves the sinner. A parent may love his child and desire his welfare, and yet be strongly opposed to the conduct of that child. When we approve the conduct of another, this is the love of complacency; when we desire simply their happiness, this is the love of benevolence. (Barnes Notes)

- Jesus is unique
 - Only begotten is from monogenes, which means one of a kind
 - Only sinless Being in this world given for all non-unique sinners

Greatest Because Of How Many God Loves

- “That WHOSOEVER believeth...”
 - The Pharisaic concept in John’s day limited God’s love to conservative Jews only
 - Matt. 5:43-48
 - Rev. 3:20 - “Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me.”

Greatest Because Of The Consequences

- “That whosoever believeth in him SHOULD NOT PERISH...”
 - “Perish is an antonym for everlasting life. The negation should not perish (meapoletai) is literally translated "may not perish" (Nestle’s Interlinear Greek-English New Testament).
 - The opposite of perish is "HAVE EVERLASTING LIFE."
- There are only two classes of individuals
 - Matt. 25:46 - “And these will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”
